VII. BOARD DIRECTOR REPORT

Mr. Gorman addressed the Board Members and referenced a case pending before the Psychology Board in which an individual provided convincing forged education transcript documents in order to receive a license. The Board should examine closely the authenticity of documents it receives. In examining the nurse licensure process, applicants will now be required to have transcripts submitted directly from the school. Temporary endorsement applicants will be still be permitted to provide a copy of a license in another jurisdiction prior to official verification sent from the other state, but staff will verify the license status at that state website, if possible.

Mr. Gorman discussed the presentation he gave at the NCSBN midyear meeting regarding the state of continued competence assessments/ requirements throughout the nursing regulatory industry. He presented a recommendation to the NCSBN Board on behalf of the continued competence committee on which he serves that would explore a possible computer based assessment tool.
